

Recruiting History

Since our founding in 1990, nearly 160,000 individuals from all academic majors have applied to Teach For America, and our network has grown to 6,200 current corps members and more than 14,000 alumni.

Applicant History		Colleges Most Attended by 2008 Corps Members		Expansion History by Year
Year	Applicants			Region	Year
1990	2,500	University of Michigan, Ann Arbor		Eastern North Carolina	1990
1991	3,100	University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign		Greater New Orleans	1990
1992	3,000	University of Wisconsin-Madison		Los Angeles	1990
1993	3,594	University of California, Berkeley		New York City	1990
1994	3,100	University of Texas at Austin		South Louisiana	1990
1995	2,925	University of Georgia*		Bay Area	1991
1996	2,228	Duke University*		Mississippi Delta	1991
1997	2,522	Georgetown University*		Houston	1991
1998	2,747	Pennsylvania State University, University Park		Rio Grande Valley	1991
1999	3,058	University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill		Baltimore	1992
2000	4,068	Washington University in St. Louis		Metro D.C.	1992
2001	4,946	George Washington University*		Newark	1993
2002	13,877	University of California, Los Angeles		Phoenix	1994
2003	15,706	University of Florida		Atlanta	2000
2004	13,378	University of Illinois at Chicago		Chicago	2000
2005	17,350	Cornell University		New Mexico	2001
2006	18,968	Yale University		St. Louis	2002
2007	18,172	Harvard University		Miami	2003
2008	24,718	New York University*		Greater Philadelphia-Camden	2003
Total	159,957	University of Notre Dame		Charlotte	2004
		University of Southern California		Las Vegas Valley	2004
		Arizona State University, Main Campus		South Dakota	2004
		University of Pennsylvania		Connecticut	2006
				Hawai'i	2006
				Memphis	2006
				Denver	2007
				Indianapolis	2008
				Jacksonville	2008
				Kansas City	2008

* Schools where Teach For America is the #1 employer of the graduating class.

2008 Corps Statistics

This year's corps represents more than 500 colleges and universities, 1,800 cities, all 50 states, and the District of Columbia. For the 2008 corps, 20 percent of applicants were accepted, and this fall, 3,700 incoming corps members began their two-year teaching commitment.

Diversity of 2008 Corps Members <sup>1</sup>	Majors for 2008 Corps Members <sup>1</sup>	Extracurricular Leadership and Academic Achievement
Total People of Color: 29% Pell Grant Recipients: 26% <sup>2</sup>
10% African-American 6% Latino/Hispanic 6% Asian-American 5% Multi-Ethnic 2% Other (Non-white) 2% Did Not Respond .4% Native American or Hawaiian 69% Caucasian	Art and Architecture 3% Business and Economics 10% Communications and Journalism 6% Education 3% Government and Public Policy 12% Language and Literature 14% Math, Science, and Engineering 13% Social Sciences 35% Other 5%	Average GPA: 3.6 Average SAT: 1320 95% of corps members held a leadership position in at least one activity while attending their undergraduate college or university. <sup>3</sup>
<sup>1</sup> Percentages are rounded and do not add up to 100 percent. <sup>2</sup> Teach For America uses the receipt of Pell Grants as a measure of socioeconomic diversity.	<sup>1</sup> Percentages are rounded and do not add up to 100 percent.	<sup>3</sup> As determined by selectors in the interview process.